BNP Paribas is among the top rated banks in the world. It has its presence in around 80 countries and employs more than 200,000 people in its branches. Its global headquarter is in Paris and was formed by the merger of Banque Nationale de Paris (BNP) and Paribas in 2000. BNP Paribas is among the first major banks in Australia and was established in 1881 to help strengthen its trading ties with Europe. The bank has three core businesses – corporate & investment banking, securities services and asset management and ranks highly in all its business. The company is consistently expanding its services in many regions to be able to provide their clients with products and services that are customized to their needs.
